Commentary and scripture verses based on the Adult International Sunday School Lessons from 2008-2012

The Higley Lesson Commentary (HLC) for 2009-2010 is the seventy-seventh annual volume. The commentary is a popular guide for spiritual growth as it follows the International Sunday School Lessons outline. It uses a 10-page format for weekly lessons to help students and adults prepare for bible studies. With 520 pages, it covers the school year from fall to the end of summer (September through August), making it one of the most informative and affordable commentaries available. The Higley difference is found in (1) responsible exposition and understandable writing, (2) morale-building messages and helpful teaching techniques, and (3) practical applications on an expository journey.

Excerpt from New Standard Teacher Training Course, the Pupil, Vol. 1: The Books of This Course Are Based on Outlines Adopted by the Sunday School Council of Evangelical Denominations, and Approved by the International Sunday School Association; The Pupil The most definite transition is that from childhood to adolescence. It comes usually from twelve to fourteen, and is marked by deep-seated physical and mental changes. The Sunday school has recognized a subdivision of the years before this transition into three periods, and three periods in the years after. The six periods, and the corresponding departments of the Sunday school, are. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. During the second invasion of Jerusalem(597 B.C.), Nebuchadnezzar deported an even larger group of Judah's upper and middle class citizens to Babylon, and among this group was a young twenty-six year old priest in training named, Ezekiel. This group of Jewish captives was placed in the region of Tel Aviv, along a wide canal that links two branches of the Euphrates known as the Kebar River. There, they were treated more as colonists than slaves and enjoyed many privileges. It was there on the banks of the Kebar River, that, in 593 B.C., a now thirty old Ezekiel received his calling from GOD (Ezekiel 1 & 2). Thirty years old is the minimum age that priests are
